THE SECOND BOYS AT HOME.

The Special Train Passed Through Here Last Night

The special train, which was run from Raleigh to bring the soldiers of the Second regiment to their homes in the western part of the state, passed through here last night about 6:40 o'clock. On account of the short notice given very few people were at the depot to welcome the boys home. Nearly all of Captain Gray's company were on, but many of them are from High Point, Lexington and stations on the Winston road and only a few of them are well known here. Much anxiety was felt by a few mothers whose sons did not come. Ten of every company were left in Raleigh as guards and these are most probably among that number.

All the boys seem to be in love with Captain Gray. Many who were not in his company said he was the best officer in the regiment. They said the Greensboro company was well officered from captain down, while some of them did not lavish praise upon the officers of their own company.

Many of the boys were "celebrating" their furloughs and a few were rather rowdy around the depot.

Nearly all the Second's boys are at home this morning after an absence of four months in answer to their country's call. They have done their duty and the people of the state will bless them for it.

CAMBON TO BE TRANSFERRED.

Voluminous Instructions Given the Paris Peace Commission by the Spanish Government.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, September 21.—The request of the Spanish authorities for an extension of the time for the evacuation of Cuba, until February 28th, as the limit, has been refused, and the commissioners have been instructed to use their best efforts to hasten the departure of the Spanish forces.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN.

Madrid, Sept. 21—The instructions given the Paris peace commission are most voluminous. It is learned they recapitulate the negotiations between Spain and the United States preceding the declaration of war, fix the conditions of Cuba's independence, explain the rights of Spain as to reserving her rights in regard to public and private property in the Antilles. They also contain instructions regarding the Philippines graduated so as to meet every hypothesis, leaving room for a free criticism on the part of the commissioners.

CAMBON TO BE TRANSFERRED.

Paris, Sept. 21—The Echo de Paris says that M. Jules Cambon, the French Ambassador to the United States at Washington, will be transferred to Vienna.

Washington, Sept. 21—Ambassador Cambon says it will be about a week before he starts to Paris. He said he hoped to return to Washington, but couldn't say if he would.

DEATH, THE REAPER.

Mrs. Sarah McMichael Gone to Her Reward.

Last evening, about five o'clock, Mrs. Sarah W. McMichael, in her 87th year, died at the home of her son, J. D. W. McNairy, near the Battle Ground. She had been in declining health for several months and her death was not unexpected. The funeral was preached at Center M. E. church today at two o'clock by Rev. A. G. Kirkman, and interment made in the cemetery there.

Mrs. McMichael had, since her youth, been a consistent member of the Methodist church, and she died full of years and good works, triumphant in the faith which had been her guiding star through her long life.

She was twice married, her first husband being Jas. McNairy. By this union there were several children, one of them being Mr. J. W. McNairy, our esteemed townsman, who lives on Arlington street. Her second husband was Obid McMichael, who died about six years ago.

Mr. J. W. McNairy and family attended the funeral this afternoon. A good woman has gone to her reward.

Caldwell, chairman of foreign missions for the presbytery, will lecture on his recent journey through the Holy Land.

The public cordially invited to be present on both evenings.

FROM AFAR OFF.

People Are Looking Toward the City of Flowers.

A gentleman now residing in the far west is in correspondence with a citizen of Greensboro with a view to locating here. He has asked questions concerning the climate, the growth of the city, the opening for certain lines of business, etc., all of which have been answered.

Another gentleman is corresponding with the same party and wants to know if there is an opening here for an art store, a place where all kinds of artists material are kept—paints, oils, brushes, easels, canvas, pictures, frames, curtains, shades, curtain poles, hangers and all goods of that class. The proper information has been given him.

Greensboro is attracting wide-spread attention. The climate is nowhere finer than in the Piedmont section of North Carolina in the foothills of the mountains. No city is better located than is Greensboro, or has better railroad advantages; and none is enjoying a more encouraging or substantial growth.

Moving Along.

The old Planter's Hotel is about ready to start on its tour down North Elm. A great deal of time was required to turn it around at Elm and Market streets, but this is done now, and Mr. Vawter expects to have it on its future site before the fifteen days allowed by the board of aldermen expires.

Off for the Mountains.

West's excursion from Danville to Asheville came in on time this morning and left at 11:58. There was a goodly number of Danville people on board and many of our most prominent citizens joined the excursion here. The Danville Wonder Band accompanied the excursion and played two excellent pieces while the train stopped here. Captain West was "diked" up like a commodore.

Asheville is a delightful place to spend an outing and this trip will doubtless be much enjoyed by those who went.

ROANOKE BOY LOST.

One Who Answers the Description Arrested Here.

Early this morning Chief of Police Rees received a postal card, which reads as follows:

"A Boy Lost—Dillard Powell, age 14 years, weight 90 pounds, very light hair, fair complected, with small light blue eyes, dark drab clothes, wore a cap and was bare-footed. The last seen of Dillard Powell was Monday, September 19th, in the afternoon, when he was in company with a tramp who persuaded the boy to accompany him south. Description of tramp: Five feet nine inches tall, smoothe shaved, black hat, black coat, pocket in right side torn to bottom of coat, brown striped pants.

"Any information inform

"H. N. Dyer,

"Chief of Police.

"Roanoke, Va., Sept. 20, 1898."

The postal was placed in the hands of Officer Scott. About 10 o'clock a woman named Jenkins complained to Officers Scott and Pearce, who were standing together on the street, that a boy whom she had allowed to spend last night at her home had stolen her son's coat and left.

About two hours afterward Officer Scott found the boy and arrested him. He first said he was from Atlanta and was 14 years old. Afterward he gave hit name as George Brown, and said he lived in Danville. He answers the description exactly, except that his hair is not "very light" and he wears shoes.

He said that his father was an insurance agent in Danville until his death three years ago. His mother, he says, has been dead ten years, and that he is the only living member of the family. He knows very little, however, of Danville, but seems to be well acquainted with Salem, Va., where he says he has never been. He would answer no questions concerning Roanoke. Officer Scott is satisfied that the boy is the one wanted there, and will notify the authorities.

The description he gives of one of the tramps tallies exactly with that given by the Roanoke authorities.

He is a shrewd boy and was doubtless well informed by the tramp.

UNDER GOLDEN SKIES.

A North Carolina Book by a North Carolina Author.

After a hurried perusal of Mrs. Osborn's new book, "Under Golden Skies—or in the New Eldorado," we feel prepared to say it is a book of rare and genuine merit. It is a story of Southern life—North Carolina life. The scene is laid in North Carolina and the characters are real with but few exceptions. The introductory was written by Howard A. Banks, of Charlotte, and we quote from him:

"The story is more than founded on fact. It is a story of all facts. The little fiction in it is chiefly to link together the real episodes in the history of friends in the flesh and to make the sketch an harmonious whole.

"Supremest motive of all, the book is sent forth by the author in the loving hope that it may appeal to 'the angels of our better natures;' that it may stimulate to a truer, better, richer, higher, holier life; that it may shed some sunlight into darkened hearts, some melody in songless lives; that it may encourage desponding souls to mount up, in hope and faith, as on eagles' wings, above obscuring clouds, until, "Under Golden Skies" indeed, they bask continually in the flooding sunlight of God's love and peace and promises."

We take pleasure in commending the book. It is dedicated by the author as a memorial of her admiration for the gallant deeds of the brave and noble heroes of America who have made the history of our war a glorious heritage. It is handsomely printed and bound and should meet with a large sale.

Connecticut Democrats.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 21—The democratic state convention for the nomination of a candidate for governor, is in session today. Great delay is being experienced; the committee on resolutions has not even met and the formation of the platform is in doubt. There is little interest in the candidates. William Kennedy has been named as temporary chairman. He began his address by praising the army and navy. He referred to the suffering among the volunteers and arraigned the administration for apparent inefficiency in certain departments.

The fact that the battleships Iowa and Oregon have been ordered to the Philippines to join Admiral Dewey's squadron simultaneous with the announcement that General Otis will be strengthened by an addition of five regiments, is significant—but of what? It is stated that no specific act has been done to require this move, but that it is to be prepared for any emergency. Then, we take it that something is expected. The elephant is probably brandishing his trunk.

Read the remarkable declaration in our news columns today, by a negro candidate for the state senate in Edgecombe county, and then ask yourself: Can we afford to be blind to the color line any longer? And we invite any candid republican to calmly look over the situation and tell who is drawing the color line. By mutual agreement there are two sides—the white side and the black side. On which side do you belong? The color of your skin should be an answer.

Poor old Cervera! He, unlike the typical Spaniard, was kind to Hobson, and when he fell into America's hands, as a war prisoner, was treated with courtesy. Now, when he is on his way home, the cruel news comes that his own countrymen will extend to him no welcome. Plans are on foot to make a demonstration against him on his arrival. And for what? It is well known that he obeyed Spanish orders against his own better judgment. A sample of Spanish government of tyranny and unfairness.

That negro-office-holding is against the best interests of the negro race, is patent to all observing men who visit the eastern counties. Large numbers of negro men are doing absolutely nothing. They congregate in the towns, walk the streets and talk politics, and it is not an unusual thing to hear them say the negroes must have more offices. When there were no negroes in office the rank and file were contented and happy, and were willing to earn a living. Now, hundreds of them are dissatisfied, and the outlook for the future is threatening. We therefore claim that it is for the mutual welfare of the races that the white people vote together as solidly as do the negroes. It will have to come, and the sooner the better for all concerned.

Dewey will shoot 'em if they don't toe the mark. Aguinaldo will be good if he knows a good thing when he sees it.

LEE PERSON, COLORED,

Will Help Lynch any Negro Who Votes the Democratic Ticket.

Lee Person, colored, is the republican nominee for the senate in Edgecombe and the populists have arranged to fuse with the republicans. In a letter from Tarboro to the Charlotte Observer, Mr. H. E. Bryant, writes:

"Lee person is the smartest politician of his race in the south. He is well educated and intelligent, young and active. On the stump he arouses the negroes against the white people. He draws the color line. Last Monday night, in a speech to the negroes at Mildred, he said:

"'Go to the elections well armed, with rocks in your pockets, clubs in your hands and carrying your pistols. And don't allow any officer to arrest you after you have registered until the day after the election, unless you have stolen something or killed somebody. Come to me if they get after you.'"

"Mr. Wm. H. Felton, being duly sworn before Mr. James R. Gaskill, notary public, says:

"'My name is Wm. H. Felton, postoffice address, Old Sparta, N. C. I was in Old Sparta Monday night, October 29th, 1894, and heard a negro, Lee Person, a republican candidate for the state legislature for Edgecombe county, address some of the people of Old Sparta and vicinity. During his speech he declared in substance that the poor white man and the negro were now equal; that the poor white man had already begun to invite the negro into his house. And soon the poor white man would invite the negro to eat and sleep with him. Also in the course of his speech Person declared that any negro who voted the democratic ticket should be lynched. And he, for one, would walk from Rocky Mount to Old Sparta to help lynch him. There were present during this vindictive speech probably 50 or more people.'"

"This is the kind of negro that will go the senate from Edgecombe this year. Person has been holding negro meetings through the county for several weeks."

NEGRO RULE IN RALEIGH.

A Negro Deputy Serves Subpœnas on White Men.

There is no use in people going to eastern North Carolina to find negro rule. Stop in Wake county. Only yesterday a negro deputy sheriff, Turner Jones, was serving a summons on some of the leading white citizens of Raleigh, including the mayor.

It came about in this way: On the Alderman Robinson (colored) trial Monday Frank Blackwell (colored) swore that Lou Roberts (colored), a witness, was a woman of bad character. Yesterday Lou went to Justice Whitaker, a Republican magistrate, to get out a warrant against Blackwell, charging him with slander.

In making out the warrant the magistrate charged Blackwell with the violation of chapter 58 of The Code—a civil statute. Of course this would not do, the action being a criminal one; but the magistrate knew no better and subpœnaed for half a dozen white witnesses, including the mayor, certain members of the bar and the city editor of this paper. These were put into the hands of Sheriff Jones' negro deputy and he hied himself away to serve them, while the papers were sent over to Justice John Nichols for trial.

Mr. Nichols, fortunately, discovered Justice Whitaker's mistake and stopped the negro official, but not before he had served his papers on Mayor Russ and gone in chase of the others on his list.—News and Observer.

A Bright Quartette.

The price of baker's bread in country towns is like gold dollars. It never fluctuates.

If a young lady never learns she is pretty until another girl tells her so she'll never know it.

Whenever a widower begins to get gray every married lady in the town has something to say about his awful conduct.

You can never know your neighbor as long as he comes to you for favors. You must go to him for them to learn how small he really is.—The Dublin Courier.

An insurance company having its headquarters in New York has applied to the Maine state authorities for information as to the number of persons killed or injured while hunting in the woods last year, with the view of issuing a new form of life and accident policy especially for sportsmen. There were thirteen fatal shooting accidents in the Maine woods in 1897.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. Howard Gardner.

Best Men at the Front.

If the democracy carries the state in the coming election the general assembly of North Carolina that next meets in Raleigh will be composed of a body of a men, the equal of which for character, ability and self-sacrificing patriotism no state in the Union has ever seen before. The party has put its best men forward for the legislature all over the state, and these men, many of them, have accepted the nominations at great personal expense and sacrifice. Take, for instance, ex-Judge Connor, of Wilson; ex-Judge Allen and Hon. F. A. Daniels, of our own county; Hon. Jas. A. Bryan, of Newbern; Hon. R. B. Glenn, of Winston—men of this class all over the state. What a grand and imposing aggregation of manhood and intelligence when they convene to make laws for our commonwealth! It will be worth a trip and a stay in Raleigh to see them in session and to listen to their great speeches in behalf of public measures.—Goldsboro Argus.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

Spokane, Washington, is now facetiously called the "City of Busted Millionaires." The beautiful residences of the town were built on a bluff overlooking the river, and were originally designed for two classes of citizens—the real estate men and the bankers. They are now said to be principally occupied by the lawyers who acted as receivers for the banks, or who otherwise helped to conduct those and other institutions through insolvency.

Monument for Miss Winnie Davis.

Richmond, Sept. 20—At a meeting of Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held today, the following was adopted:

"The Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, have, at a meeting at Lee Camp Hall, Sept. 20, 1898, resolved to inaugurate a movement to erect a monument over the grave of Winnie Davis, the Daughter of the Confederacy, feeling sure that this work will meet with the sympathy of all lovers of the South, Daughters of the Confederacy, veterans' associations, Sons of Veterans and many others over the whole country."

The Richmond Chapter requests that all who desire to join them in this work of love will send in their names at once, as it is the intention of the chapter to have the monument commenced January, 1899. The chapter will attend in a body.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23rd, says; "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., of Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in it's merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. Howard Gardner.

Condoling With Li Hung Chang.

Pekin, Sept. 21—The diplomatic representatives of Russia, France, Belgium, Spain and Holland have called upon Li Hung Chang to condole with him upon his dismissal from the Chinese foreign office. Much comment has been extended by the action of these ministers.

Special Notice.

Proposals will be received by the city of Greensboro, N. C., up to November 15, 1898, for lighting the streets of said city with electricity for a period of three or more years from January 1, 1899, said proposals to be based on seventy or more arc lights of 1,200 candle power. City reserves right to reject any or all bids. Bids or inquiries should be addressed to B. H. Merrimon, chairman light committee, Greensboro, N. C.

In connection with the above the Industrial and Immigration Association of Greensboro urges investors to investigate Greensboro as a place for building an electric street railway and power plant. Numerous small manufacturing concerns want power of this kind. Incandescent lights are wanted. City has a population of over 10,000 and is growing rapidly. Unusual opportunity for those who mean business; no fakirs wanted. Information will be furnished by the I. & I Association.

Nantucket, Mass., still has a town crier, who is engaged by the merchants to announce their auctions, and by summer visitors to call attention to social events. Once in a while he has to spread the alarm when a child is lost. On his own account he meets the steamboats, gets the newspapers and runs through the streets calling out the principal headings. The old residents can keep abreast of the times merely by listening to his cries.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

An Ideal Tourisy Trip to the North and East, via "Chesapeake Line."

The pleasure-seeking tourist can accomplish no more delightful rail and water journey to the North or East than via the Southern railway to Norfolk, thence the Chesapeake Line steamers to Baltimore. The Chesapeake Line is the fast mail route. The fleet consists of the most magnificent steamships afloat, The City of Atlanta, Charlotte, Danville and Baltimore, leaving Norfolk every week day at 5:45 for Baltimore, touching at Old Point Comfort. These ships are especially constructed for the Bay service, and their appointments are as perfect as the most fastidious taste can suggest.

The cousine is unexcelled, and every attention possible is shown to the traveler.

The connection with the Southern Railway, arriving at Norfolk at 7:50 a. m., permits a day's stay over at that point, giving an opportunity to visit Old Point Comfort (Fort Monroe) Virginia Beach and Newport News.

For rates, through tickets, and other information, call on any agent Southern Railway, or write R. L. Vernon, Trav. Pass. Agent, Charlotte, N. C.

The market gardners of Maryland are discouarged over the ravages of the celery web worm in their extensive celery fields. No way has yet been found to destroy this industrious pest without blighting the crop.

The censorship of the press leads to amusing expedients for filling up space in the newspapers of Madrid and Barcelona. The most sensational of Spanish newspapers are now forced to print a good many cooking recipes, remedies for mosquito bites, etc., to fill up.

Apropose of the growing popoularity of Scotch whiskey, a London paper observes that in order to secure the preference of the saloon keepers of New York and the bartenders of the mushroom towns of South Africa the distillers occasionally insert a sovereign between the cork and the capsule of each bottle in a case. This fact is, of course, duly advertised, and the retailer continues to order the special brand so commended to his favor in the hope that he may secure a prize.

An Enterprising Druggist

There are are few men more wide awake or enterprising than C, E. Holton, who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in his line for his many customers. He now has the valuable agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is producing such a furor all over the country by its startling cures, It absolutely cures asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, and all affections of the throat, chest and lungs. Call at the above drug store and get a trial bottle free or a regular size for 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.
